Estimate
£1,800 to £2,400

Lot 129

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 10.88g, Akbarabad, AH1045 / 9, legends within square frame with knotted corners both sides (KM 260.2var), edge damage from large test punches, otherwise toned red gold, about extremely fine, this year / type combination not recorded for this mint. The fine calligraphy of the die is indicative of the work of a genuine Mughal mint master. This coin is nevertheless unusual in having two dates: '1044' at the bottom right of the frame containing the Kalima, and '1045' in the right margin. The latter date is more correct for ry.9. It could be that this is an example of an unofficial striking made at an official mint. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£1,000 to £1,500

Lot 130

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 10.87g, Akbarabad, AH1047 / 10, legend in quatrefoil both sides (KM 258.1), several punches on edge, otherwise toned, good very fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£600 to £800

Lot 131

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 10.79g, Akbarabad, AH1057 / 20, legend in quatrefoil both sides (KM 258.1), single tiny edge punch, attractive rich tone, about extremely fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£700 to £900

Lot 132

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 10.90g, Akbarabad, AH1062 / 26, legend in quatrefoil both sides (KM 258.1), a few edge punches, attractive rich tone, good very fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£400 to £500

Lot 134

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 11.92g, Balkh, AH1057, legends in square frame with knotted corners both sides (KM 260.16), a few punches on edge, condition varies across flan, toned good very fine, an extremely rare mint for this type For a coin struck from same dies housed in the British Museum see

Zeno:<https://www.zeno.ru/showphoto.php?photo=201550>This extremely rare type was only struck during the Mughal occupation of Balkh that took place between 1646-7. See also 'Numismatic Reflections of Shahjahan's Balkh Campaign' in Numismatic Digest 39, 2015. It is encouraging that this coin is struck from the same dies as that in the British Museum (see small die crack above last letter of 'Allah'); a limited campaign issue would only necessitate a few dies. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£2,500 to £3,000

Lot 135

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold ilahi Mohur, 10.90g, Burhanpur, AH1038 / 2, ilahi month Shahrewar, legends in four lines both sides (KM 255.2), edge with a clip and a few test punches, otherwise about extremely fine, scarce single-year type for this mintSubject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. Estimate
£500 to £600

Lot 149

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 10.93g, Burhanpur (mint mostly off flan), date off flan, ry 31, legends within square beaded borders both sides (KM 260.6 for type), a crisply struck attractive coin, about uncirculated, unknown with this regnal year. This is a very interesting and potentially rare piece. Previously Mohurs of Shah Jahan have only been recorded with this regnal year from mints such as Kashmir and Multan, however there are Rupees of this date issued at Burhanpur. There is a possibility that this is a copy, but if it is, the quality is exceptional. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£1,000 to £1,200

Lot 150

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 10.86g, mint uncertain, stylistically Burhanpur, date and ry. off flan, legends within square beaded borders both sides (KM 260.6 for type), a few test punches on edge, good fine. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£400 to £500

Lot 161

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur (possibly contemporary copy), 10.97g, Patan Deo, AH1047, legends in square frame with knotted corners both sides (KM 260.19), a pleasing coin, reverse a little double struck, edge with a couple of tiny nicks, condition varies across flan, about extremely fine, a very rare mint for this type For a coin of similar type (and apparently same dies) see

Zeno: <https://www.zeno.ru/showphoto.php?photo=83274> Offered in Baldwin's Auction 53, 26 September 2007, lot 1178 (unsold), and again in Auction 59-60, 5 May 2009, lot 569 (sold for £840) Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£700 to £900

Lot 162

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur (possibly contemporary copy), 10.73g, Patan Deo, date off flan (should be AH1047), legends in square frame with knotted corners both sides (in style of KM 260.19), a cleanly struck coin, with whole mint name visible, possibly not from an official mint, edge with a couple of small punches, condition varies across flan, very fine - extremely fine, a very rare mint for this type For a coin of similar type see

Zeno:<https://www.zeno.ru/showphoto.php?photo=83274> Offered in Baldwin's Auction 53, 26 September 2007, lot 1178 (unsold), and again in Auction 59-60, 5 May 2009, lot 569 (sold for £840) Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£500 to £600

Lot 163

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur, 10.90g, Patna, date off flan, ry. 23, legends in square frame with line radiating from corners both sides (KM 260.14), a few punches on edge, toned good very fine Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. Lot 175

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur or jewellery piece, 10.77g, Shahjahanabad, yr.28, legend within plain circular frame both sides (KM 262.1), some punches and adjustments on edge, small letters engraved on obverse, fair. Although the script on this coin appears of good quality, and its low weight may be just due to wear, the fact remains that the letters end abruptly at a raised edge. This would indicate an item made for jewellery, or at least remodelled for such. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£400 to £500

Lot 176

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold ilahi Mohur Token or jewellery piece, 10.75g, 'Surat,' '23,' legends in four lines both sides (in style of KM 255.6), attractive about extremely fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£400 to £500

Lot 177

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold square Mohur Token or contemporary copy, 10.85g, Surat, date off flan, ry. uncertain, legends in square frame with knotted corners both sides (in style of KM 264.2), edge with a punch on each side, about fine, an interesting piece. Genuine coins of this type are so rare the cataloguer has not found one to compare this coin with. However, the poor formation of the legends and rough execution is not indicative of it being struck at an official Mughal mint. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£500 to £600

Lot 178

Mughal Empire, Shah Jahan (1628-58), gold Mohur Token or jewellery piece, 10.81g, Surat, '7', legends within square frame with knotted corners both sides (in style of KM 260.15), two tiny edge marks, generally very fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£350 to £400

Lot 310

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1835 (1778), 'Ambratsar' type, with extra dot in legend above date (Herrli 01.03.04; Gurprit Singh 01.04.01; KM A20.1a), with attractive dark tone, and although the condition is a little patchy, it is quite well struck for type, very fine - good very fine, scarce early date. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£100 to £150

Lot 311

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Gobindshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1841 (1784), with katar on reverse, Arabic word 'ahd' below (Herrli 01.18.04; Gurprit Singh 01.66.01; KM A20.2), many shroff marks on edge which is an unusual feature for this series, one unobtrusive punch by date, good very fine, scarce with visible Arabic number in lower part of legend. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£150 to £200

Lot 312

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Gobindshahi Rupee, 10.98g, Amritsar, VS 1841 (1784), with katar on reverse, Arabic word 'ahd' below (Herrli 01.18.04; Gurprit Singh 01.66.01; KM A20.2), extremely fine, with attractive toning, tiny natural flan crack on edge, scarce with 'ahd' in lower part of legend visible. The symbols before the date on this coin are particularly clear. It may be that each Misl used different symbols, but their meaning is not fully understood. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£120 to £150

Lot 313

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Gobindshahi Rupee, 10.96g, Amritsar, VS 1841 (1784), with katar on reverse, Arabic word 'ahd' below (Herrli 01.18.04; Gurprit Singh 01.66.01; KM A20.2), good very fine, with attractive toning, scarce with 'ahd' in lower part of legend visible. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£90 to £120

Lot 314

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Gobindshahi Rupee, 11.04g, Amritsar, VS 1841 (1784), with katar on reverse, Arabic number '18' below (Herrli 01.18.04; Gurprit Singh 01.66.03; KM A20.2), very fine, scarce with lower part of legend visible, examples with clear '18' rare. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£80 to £100

Lot 315

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1846 (1789), with distinct obverse die, early leaf form on reverse (Herrli 01.06.04; Gurprit Singh 01.12.01; KM A20.4), a few marks on edge, obverse with a test punch, reverse with two, toned very fine / about very fine, scarce. Minted by the Sikh Misls, ostensibly the Bhangi Misl. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£280 to £340

Lot 316

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1848 ? (date not on flan), early leaf form on reverse (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.15.01; KM 20.1), many interesting shroff marks on edge, struck off centre, so date not on flan, darkly toned, very fine, scarce. As the die on this coin shifted during striking, some parts of the die that are not usually visible are clear. On this coin the gaaf of Guru is extended to the top to an unusual extent, and also part of the border can be seen on the reverse. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£260 to £300

Lot 317

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1850 (1793), early leaf form on reverse (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.15.01; KM 20.1), with seven different shroff marks on edge, two obverse and one reverse test punch, about very fine, a scarce date. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£70 to £90

Lot 318

Sikh Empire, Misl Period (VS 1822-56; 1765-99), Gobindshahi Rupee, 10.69g, Amritsar, VS 1852 (1795), with katar on reverse, Arabic word 'tani' below (Herrli 01.19.04; Gurprit Singh 01.72.01; KM A20.2), a few natural edge cracks, weak area on obverse, reverse weakly struck and a little discoloured, but overall very fine and rare with 'tani' clearly visible. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£80 to £100

Lot 319

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Morashahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1862 (1805), reverse with mora (peacock tail), or ber symbol (Herrli 01.11.04; Gurprit Singh 01.29.01; KM 20.4), a couple of shroff marks and an adjustment mark on the edge, gem uncirculated and rare in this condition. Coins of this type have been referred to as Morashahi due to the shape of the symbol on the reverse that resembles a peacock's tail. Gurprit Singh says that they should be correctly referred to as Bershahi a name taken from its resemblance to a sprig of the Ber (Zizyphus jujuba). For a coin of similar condition sold recently, refer to: Spink Numismatic e-Circular 11, 2021, lot 7081 (sold for £1400). Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£900 to £1,200

Lot 320

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Morashahi Rupee, 11.06g, Amritsar, VS 1862, reverse with mora (peacock tail), or ber symbol (Herrli 01.11.04; Gurprit Singh 01.29.01; KM 20.4), a few shroff marks on edge and obverse, test punch, very fine and scarce. Coins of this type have been referred to as Morashahi due to the shape of the symbol on the reverse that resembles a peacock's tail. Gurprit Singh says that they should be correctly referred to as Bershahi a name taken from its resemblance to a sprig of the Ber (Zizyphus jujuba). Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£150 to £200

Lot 321

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Morashahi Rupee, 11.21g, Amritsar, VS 1862, with fish-like motif to left of legend, reverse with mora (peacock tail), or ber symbol with two extra leaves beneath (Herrli 01.11.04; Gurprit Singh 01.29.01; KM 20.4), a few natural edge splits, very fine and scarce. Coins of this type have been referred to as Morashahi due to the shape of the symbol on the reverse that resembles a peacock's tail. Gurprit Singh says that they should be correctly referred to as Bershahi a name taken from its resemblance to a sprig of the Ber (Zizyphus jujuba). This coin is unusual as it has an extra two leaves below the sprig. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£150 to £200

Lot 322

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Morashahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1862 (1805), fish within legend to left, rev. with mora (peacock) symbol in adapted letter ka, with spread tail above (Herrli 01.11.04; Gurprit Singh 01.31.01 (plate coin for this type); KM 20.4), a couple weak areas both sides, but otherwise as struck, uncirculated and a very rare type. On this particular coin most of the peacock is clear, so this example is the true mora shahi type. The difference can be seen by comparing with the previous lot, 321. In fact, Gurprit Singh describes this particular type as having two peacocks, although the second is difficult to see (refer to 'Coins of the Sikhs' p.96). Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£900 to £1,200

Lot 323

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1867 (1810), part of extra word fateh visible far left, rev. unusual leaf variant, to right of this (above takht) is Persian word 'ta'ni' (second year) (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.35.01; KM 20.1), various shroff marks on edge and single obverse test punch, darkly toned, about very fine, a very rare variant. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£200 to £250

Lot 324

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1874, with face-like symbol on obverse and number '2' above takht on reverse (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01, KM 20.1), various marks on edge, toned, good fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£40 to £60

Lot 325

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1869, leaf on reverse, single line in legend, face to right of leaf and sunflower below (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.37.03, KM 20.1), with no less than ten shroff marks on edge, nine of which are different, a single obverse test punch and two reverse punches, very fine / about very fine. The shroff marks on the edges of these coins are interesting in their own right. They show that the coins have passed through many hands and been tested and verified by different authorities. For some series of coins these marks are becoming the subject of research in their own right, and it cannot be long before the marks on Sikh coins come under similar scrutiny. This coin is a good example with no less than nine different marks. It also has the advantage of having an extra 'star' or 'sunflower' symbol by the leaf. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£70 to £100

Lot 326

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1870, double line in reverse legend above leaf (Herrli 01.08.04; Gurprit Singh 01.38.01, KM 20.1), apart from an insignificant edge fault, about uncirculated as struck, a neat and pleasing coin, scarce. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£120 to £150

Lot 327

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1871, single line in reverse legend above leaf (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01, KM 20.1), a couple of punches on edge, dark toning due to hoard damage, fine, very rare with single line. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£100 to £120

Lot 328

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1872 (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01, KM 20.1), cleaned, with small stain on reverse, very fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£40 to £60

Lot 329

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1875 (1818), 'face' within obverse legend, leaf on reverse, with unusual symbol and digit 2 to right (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01; KM 20.1), darkly toned, with three interesting shroff marks on edge and obverse test punch, good very fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£180 to £220

Lot 330

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1876, with face-like symbol on obverse and number '2' above takht on reverse (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01, KM 20.1), a couple of natural faults and three different shroff marks on edge, toned, good extremely fine / extremely fine. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£60 to £80

Lot 331

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupees (2), Amritsar, VS 1877, both with face-like symbol on obverse and number '2' above takht on reverse, but variants (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01, KM 20.1), the first with three distinct shroff marks on edge, toned very fine, the second also very fine, but struck from rusty dies (2). Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£90 to £120

Lot 332

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupees (2), Amritsar, VS 1878, 1879, the first with face-like symbol above takht on reverse, and St. Stephen's cross below leaf, the second with double circle above takht (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01, 01.45.02, KM 20.1), the first with some marks on edge, darkly toned, very fine, and apparently uncatalogued for VS 1878 with ancillary cross, the second also very fine, but a softer strike with test punch either side (2). Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£100 to £150

Lot 333

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupees (2), Amritsar, VS 1883 (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01, KM 20.1), both with a few marks on edge, both very fine, one darkly toned, the other a softer strike (2) Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£90 to £120

Lot 334

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupees (2), Amritsar, VS 1884 (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh 01.39.01/ 50.1, KM 20.1), the first with three distinct shroff marks on edge, the second also with marks on edge and dark tone, both very fine (2) Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£90 to £120

Lot 335

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Amritsar, VS 1884 / 67 (Herrli 01.07.04; Gurprit Singh -, KM 20.1), four different shroff marks on edge, darkly toned, very fine, unusual, and possibly unique. This is an intriguing coin. At first it appears that '67' is a mistake for '97', a date found on many fixed year 1884 Rupees. However, this is a Nanakshahi type, and those dated '97' would normally be combined with the Gobindshahi legend. Those with the Nanakshahi legend were struck prior to 1827, so this coin was either struck before this time, or struck using old dies. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£180 to £240

Lot 336

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupees (2), Amritsar, fixed year VS 1884 / 85 (2), different dies (Herrli 01.10.04; Gurprit Singh 01.51.1, KM 21.1), the first with two shroff marks on edge, toned, good very fine, the second with single clear edge mark, good extremely fine, above average for type (2) Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£90 to £120

Lot 337

Lot 373

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Nanakshahi Rupee, Dar Jhang (Amritsar), VS 1874 (1817), with distinct pipal leaf on reverse, and extra legend dar jhang to left of this and circular design below (Herrli 01.09.04; Gurprit Singh -, KM 20.1a), five different shroff marks on edge, showing wide circulation, obverse weakly struck with two test punches, attractively toned very fine / extremely fine, very rare Herrli notes that there is an example of this type in the Lahore Museum, and that very few of them are known, and these only for VS1873 and 1874 (1816-17). The reading of the extra legend is still controversial, some, such as Rogers, attributing it to a town, Jhang, others to a personal name. Gurprit Singh uses documentary evidence to link these coins to the location Jhang Sialan in his paper in the Journal of the ONS No. 184 (Summer 2005), pp.14-15. Papers written in Persian were discovered in the early 1930s that directly refer to the events of 1816-17. These were published in a book : Events at the Court of Ranjit Singh 1810-1817, edited by Lt. Col. H.L.O Garrett and G. L. Chopra, published 1970. From accounts in this publication it seems that Ahmed Khan governed Jhang Sialan on behalf of Ranjit Singh in 1816, and paid him tribute in Rupee coins, but fell out of favour in 1817. As there are several mentions of Rupees in the accounts, it therefore seems likely that this particular type may be connected to the place when under the governorship of Ahmed Khan. For further information about this rare type see: B. Becker, "The so-called Dar Jhang rupee of the Sikhs," ONS Newsletter No. 143 (Winter 1995), p. 12. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£1,000 to £1,500

Lot 374

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Rupee, 10.72g, Derajat, VS 1896 (1839), VS year above distinctive symbol, rev. leaf above mint name (Herrli 07.06.04; KM 120.2), cleaned, about extremely fine, rare. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£350 to £400

Lot 375

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Gobindshahi Rupee, Kashmir, probably VS 1878 (date off flan), distinctive leaf within legend, rev. leaf within text (Herrli 06.04.04; KM 46.3), some natural edge cracks, about very fine and scarce. Although the date is not visible on this particular coin it has been attributed to VS 1878 through typology. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£100 to £150

Lot 376

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Gobindshahi Rupee, Kashmir, probably VS 1878 (date off flan), large sprig with berries within legend, rev. leaf within legend (Herrli 06.03.04; KM 46.3), some natural edge cracks, attractively toned, good very fine and scarce. Although the date is not visible on this particular coin it has been attributed to VS 1878 through typology. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£150 to £180

Lot 377

Sikh Empire, Ranjit Singh (VS 1856-96; 1799-1839), Gobindshahi Rupee, Kashmir, probably VS 1879 (date off flan), Devanagari 'har' within legend, rev. leaf below date (Herrli 06.06.04; KM 46.6), a very scarce variant, condition not even across flan, but overall good very fine. Although the date is not visible on this particular coin it has been attributed to VS 1879 as this is the only date known to feature 'har' on the obverse. The presence of this Devanagari legend had previously been attributed to the Sikh governor of Kashmir, Hari Singh Nalwa, due to his name. Now it is thought the 'har' is for 'hari' ie. God. Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.

Estimate
£1,200 to £1,600

Lot 378
