British Solomon Islands
Early Outgoing Mail
The only overseas communication was with Sydney, New South Wales. During this period the Resident Commissioner maintained a private stock of New South Wales stamps and used them on outgoing mail. When the letters arrived at Sydney Post Office, the adhesives were cancelled and the mail forwarded to its destination. Subsequently the General Post Office, and the Postal Department of Sydney arranged to forward all letters to the Solomon Islands in a sealed bag in care of the Resident Commissioner. He, on his part, made up a similar bag containing the letters and the necessary cash to pay the postage fees. On arrival in Sydney the post office undertook the stamping of the letters, applying the postmark, then forwarding them to their destination. 1900 (14 Dec.) "on her britannic majesty's service" envelope (230x95mm.) from and signed by Charles Woodford, the Resident Commissioner, to the Bank of New Zealand at Sydney, cancelled on arrival with 17 January 1901 c.d.s.; three light creases barely detracting from appearance. British Solomon Islands
1907 Large Canoe Issue
The Large Canoe Issue was not authorized by the British High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, so to meet the need for postage stamps for the Solomons, Mr. Charles Woodford, the Resident Commissioner, personally had this issue printed in Sydney. To help prove his point and to show a profit, he advertised and sold complete sets to the public at 20/-. By realising a profit and showing the need for stamps, Mr. Woodford demonstrated that the Solomon Islands Post Office was profitable and necessary. The issue was sold from 14 February 1907 and during this initial period, the adhesives were considered "locals" and had franking abilities only to Sydney, Australia. Mail destined internationally required adding the correct New South Wales postage After 3 September 1907, the Large Canoe issue was accepted by the U.P.U. and approved as valid on international mail.
Note: Stamp type numbers quoted in this issue are those taken from "The Encyclopaedia of British Empire Stamps" Vol. IV Australasia by Robson Lowe
Mint
The unique set in complete mint sheets of sixty. Condition throughout is generally fine. All sheets have a few stamps affected by damp or rust staining that in the main does not affect the overall appearance. One ½d. and 2½d. horizontal row are creased, the 2½d. sheet with patchy gum and the 6d. sheet with small thin in margin. No more than seven stamps in each sheet are mounted.

Lot 4162

British Solomon Islands 1907 Large Canoe Issue The Large Canoe Issue was not authorized by the British High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, so to meet the need for postage stamps for the Solomons, Mr. Charles Woodford, the Resident Commissioner, personally had this issue printed in Sydney. To help prove his point and to show a profit, he advertised and sold complete sets to the public at 20/-. By realising a profit and showing the need for stamps, Mr. Woodford demonstrated that the Solomon Islands Post Office was profitable and necessary. The issue was sold from 14 February 1907 and during this initial period, the adhesives were considered "locals" and had franking abilities only to Sydney, Australia. Mail destined internationally required adding the correct New South Wales postage After 3 September 1907, the Large Canoe issue was accepted by the U.P.U. and approved as valid on international mail. Note: Stamp type numbers quoted in this issue are those taken from "The Encyclopaedia of British Empire Stamps" Vol. IV Australasia by Robson Lowe Covers 1907 (1 July) large size (c354x126mm.) on his britannic majesty's service envelope registered to France, bearing 2d. to 6d. all tied by Tulagi c.d.s. (Type D1), in combination with New South Wales 2d., 3d. and 1/- tied by "R" in oval, showing straight-line "registered" h.s. and "registered/sydney n.s.w." c.d.s. (16.7) with, on reverse, Aix Les Bains arrival date stamp (19.8). A couple of archival folds not detracting from the overall appearance a very rare franking. Photo Subject to 20% VAT on Buyer's Premium. For more information please view Terms and Conditions for Buyers.
