Bowmore-1969-25 year old Distilled and bottled by Morrison's Bowmore Distillery. In original carton. Good Label. Level: top shoulder. "...Very clean and flawless nose, the fruit just keeps coming. Maybe this is a lack of complexity but the fruit is so bright and pure you can't help marvel at it. After a while there is the faintest whiff of something perfumy that you might associate with the altogether different 80s style, but its so delicate and well integrated it really works with the fruit. Palate: On the palate it is surprisingly big for 43%. Lots of well rounded notes espresso, walnut oil, gentle peat smoke, cocoa and again a little bit of that 80s violet/perfume character. Its almost like a flashforward Bowmore but its so subtle that, as with on the nose, it doesn't detract at all." (93pts Whiskyfun) 750ml. Single Malt., 43% volume. 1 bottle

A fantastic development, from a maybe slightly shy start (considering it's Lagavulin) to a bold, thick and extremely satisfying middle. Level: high to mid shoulder. Malt Manic award 2003, "...Mouth: again, a big, bold malt. Lots of interesting medicinal aromas: camphor, propolis, tar. Develops on liquorice stick, ashes, pepper. Again, very austere, getting nicely bitter (quinquina, Campari). This one takes no prisoners, and makes almost all Ardbegs taste sweetish. Finish: very long but rather elegant, again on pepper and wood." (5 stars-Whiskyfun) 70cl. Single Malt., 58.8% volume. 1 bottle

Level: into neck."...Mouth: a bit dry at the attack, tannic, but not overly so, quite bold considering it's only at 43% ABV. Quite citrusy again, 'candied', with a little peat and an enjoyable smokiness. Goes on with bitter chocolate, toffee, hints of rosehip tea, crystallised orange zests... The finish is rather long but alas, quite tannic, drying, almost like over-infused tea. But that's no big flaw, the whole is great whisky" (5 Stars-Whiskyfun)750ml. Single Malt., 43% volume.1 bottle

Good labelling with minor scuffing. Level: 6cm below foil."...Mouth (neat): that's where this one scores better when undiluted, it's all a massive, extremely salty and hugely tarry and liquoricy spirit. Wheelbarrows of salted liquorice and when I write salted, that's an understatement. With water: purfektion. Fab peat - tar - salt - lemon - combo, with crates and crates of kippers behind all that. Finish: long, on exactly the same notes. A feeling of fullness. Comments: I can't see why I would score this baby differently this time. Loved it and love it." (5 Stars-Whiskyfun)70cl.
