Just one main flavour because we call the anti-maltoporn brigade: lemongrass. Smashing whisky. Finish: very long, still very nervous, chiselled and, once again, Montrachet-esque. Comments: huge whisky that did need neither heavy peat nor heavy sherry to become, err, big. Not even high strength! I love it even more than the 1963 that we had back in June, remember? It's bigger whisky." (5 Stars-Whiskyfun)70cl. Single Malt., 46% volume.1 bottle

"...Some notes of sea water and lemon juice (fresh oysters), with some camomile and some Chinese green tea. It's all a matter of subtleness here... Mouth: surprisingly smooth, developing on a great mix of herbal tea and dried fruits (pineapple, guava...) Perhaps it gets a little dusty if not too tannic, with some hints of old papers.
